MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

The Plaintiff Richard S. Gale (“Plaintiff”) filed a Complaint on November 19, 2008, in an apparent effort to forestall a foreclosure on a piece of real property located as 7836 Faith Court, Las Vegas, Nevada, APN 125-21-512-054 (“Subject Property”). Plaintiff’s repeated failure to make his mortgage payments caused the foreclosure. The Complaint named First Franklin Financial Corporation (“First Franklin”), Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (“MERS”), Cal-Western Reconveyance Corporation (“Cal-Western”), and LaSalle Bank, N.A. (“LaSalle”). Plaintiff’s Complaint set forth three causes of action, namely: (1) Breach of Contract and Failure to Act in Good Faith; (2) Injunctive Relief; and (3) Wrongful foreclosure. On December 12, 2008 Defendant Cal-Western filed a Motion to Dismiss; on December 18, 2008 Defendants First Franklin, MERS, and LaSalle filed a Motion to Dismiss or Alternatively for Summary Judgment.

On March 16, 2009, oral argument was heard, and Defendants' Motions were granted with respect to Plaintiff's claims for (1) breach of contract, (2) breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing, (3) injunctive relief, and (4) wrongful foreclosure. Plaintiff was granted fifteen days to file an amended complaint if he should desire to allege a Truth in Lending Act ("TILA") violation.

On March 31, 2009, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint, alleging five causes of action: (1) violation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a)(A)(i)[sic]; (2) violation of TILA; (3) violation of Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (“RESPA”); (4) violation of NRS 104.3416; and finally (5) violation of NRS 104.1304.

II. SUMMARY OF RELEVANT FACTS

The Plaintiff is the owner of the Subject Property. On or about November 25, 2006 Plaintiff borrowed $250,000.00 from First Franklin, and signed a promissory note to that effect. This promissory note was secured by a Deed of Trust, a true copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A." This Deed of Trust explicitly names the lender as First Franklin, the trustee as ServiceLink, and MERS as the nominee beneficiary. Among other things, this Deed of Trust contains the following provisions:

MERS is a separate corporation to this action solely as nominee

1 for Lender and Lender Successors and assigns. MERS is the 2 beneficiary under the security instrument....

3 Borrower understands and agrees that MERS holds only legal title
4 to the interest granted by Borrower in the Security Instrument, but,
5 if necessary to comply with law or custom, MERS (as nominee for 6 Lender and Lenders Successors and Assigns) has the right to: exercise any all of those interests, including but not limited to, the right to foreclose and sell the property and to take any action entitled of Lender including, but not limited to, releasing and cancelling the security instrument...

7 The Note or partial interest in the Note (together with this Security 8 Instrument) can be sold one or more times without prior notice to 9 Borrower. A sale might result in a change with the entity (known as 10 the “Loan Servicer”) that collects periodical payments due under the Note 11 and this Security Instrument and performs other mortgage loan servicing obligations under the Note, this Security Instrument, and applicable law.
There also might be one or more changes of the Loan Servicer unrelated to a sale of the Note.... .

12 Lender at its option made from time to time remove Trustee and appoint 13 a successor trustee to another trustee appointed hereunder. Without 14 conveyance of the Property, the successor trustee shall succeed to all the title, 15 power and duties conferred upon Trustee herein and by the Applicable Law.
(emphasis added).

16 This Deed of Trust was signed by the Plaintiff and notarized to that effect.

17 Thereafter, Plaintiff began to default on his loan payments. As a result, Cal-Western, as 18 “either the original trustee, the duly appointed substitute trustee, or acting as agent for the trustee or 19 beneficiary under the Deed of Trust,” filed a Notice of Breach and Default and an Election to cause
20 sale of real property under Deed of Trust, a true copy which is annexed hereto as Exhibit “B.”

21 On August 21, 2008 MERS executed an assignment of Deed of Trust transferring to LaSalle
22 all Beneficial and Trust interests under the Deed of Trust. A true copy of this document is annexed
23 hereto as Exhibit “C.” Plaintiff still failed to bring his loan current, and as a result, on November 10,
24 2008 Cal-Western as duly appointed foreclosure trustee, executed a Notice of Trustee Sale, a true
25 copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit “D.” At the time the notice of trustee sale was filed, 26 Plaintiff owed $260,942.94 pursuant to his Note and Deed of Trust.

27 Nowhere in Plaintiff’s lengthy Complaint does he dispute the fact that he defaulted on and 28 failed to abide by the term of his Note and Deed of Trust. Plaintiff appears to have filed the original

1 Complaint and his First Amended Complaint in a frivolous attempt to forestall the rightful
 2 foreclosure of the subject property. As such, Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint fails to set forth a 3 cause of action for which relief can be granted, or in the alternative, Plaintiff's meritless First 4 Amended Complaint entitles Defendants to judgment as a matter of law.

5 III. LEGAL STANDARD

6       A. Plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed because Plaintiff failed to provide a claim for which relief may be granted.

7 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be 8 granted," is a basis to dismiss a Complaint where the moving party can demonstrate beyond doubt 9 that the Plaintiff cannot provide a set of facts in support of their claim which would entitle them to 10 relief, such that this Motion to Dismiss should be granted. See, Puckett v. Park Place Entertainment, 11 Corp., 332 F. Supp. 2d 1349, 1352 (D. Nev. 2004). In making a determination, the allegations made 12 in the Complaint are generally taken as true and viewed in the light most favorable to the non-13 moving party. Id. While the Court should typically take the allegations as alleged in the Complaint 14 as true, "Courts do not assume the truth of legal conclusions merely because they are cast in the form 15 of factual allegations." Puckett, 332 F. Supp. 2d at 1352 (Quoting Western Mining Counsel v. Watt, 16 643 F. 2d 618, 624 (9th Cir. 1981)). It has specifically been held that "conclusory allegations of law
 17 and unwarranted inferences are insufficient to defend a Motion to Dismiss for failure to state a 18 claim." In re Stac Electronics Securities Litigation, 89 F. 3d 1399, 1403 (9th Cir. 1996) (Quoting In 19 re VeriFone Securities Litigation, 11 F.3d 865, 868 (9th Cir. 1993)).

20 A claim for relief must contain a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the 21 Plaintiff is entitled to relief. Fed. R.Civ. P. 8(a). Failure to state a claim upon which relief can be 22 granted is a basis to dismiss a Complaint where the moving party can demonstrate beyond doubt that 23 the Plaintiff cannot set forth facts in support of their claim which would entitle them to relief. See, 24 Puckett v. Park Place Entertainment, Corp., 332 F. Supp. 2d 1349, 1352 (D. Nev. 2004).

25 Furthermore, the Supreme Court recently clarified the pleadings obligations of Fed. R. Civ.
 26 P. 8(a)(2) in the seminal case of Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, by holding that:

27       A Plaintiff's obligation to provide the single 'ground' of his 28 'entitle[ment]' to relief requires more than labels and conclusions, in a

1 form like recitation of the elements of the cause of action will not 2 do.... Factual allegations must be enough to raise the right to relief above the speculative level.

3 127 S. Ct. 1955, 1964 (2007). Plaintiff's Complaint in this case does not rise to the 4 Twombly standard as a cognizable legal theory entitling the Plaintiff to relief. Id.

5       B.     In the alternative, this Court should grant Defendants' Motion for Summary
 6 Judgment since Defendants are entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

7       The Court should grant a Motion for Summary Judgment where there are no genuine issues
 8 of material fact existing and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ.
 9 P. 56(b). The purpose of the Motion for Summary Judgment is to obviate trials "when they would 10 serve no useful purpose." Short v. Hotel Riviera, Inc., 79 Nev. 94 (1963). The Nevada Supreme 11 Court has held that Summary Judgment is proper when documentation that is "properly before the 12 Court demonstrate[s] that no genuine issue of material fact exists, and that the moving party is 13 entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 731 (2005).

14       Though the pleadings and proof should be construed in favor of the non-moving party, "that 15 [moving] party bears the burden to 'do more than simply show there is some metaphysical doubt' as 16 to the operative facts in order to avoid summary judgment being entered in the moving party's 17 favor... [and] is not entitled to build a case on the gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation and 18 conjecture." Id., at 732. Furthermore, the Wood Court held that it is substantive law which 19 determines which factual disputes are material and which factual disputes are irrelevant. Id., at 731.

20       Merely colorable evidence or evidence which is not significantly probative is simply not 21 sufficient to preclude summary judgment. Oehler v. Humana, Inc., 105 Nev. 348, 351 (1989).
 22 Specifically, neither conclusory statements nor general allegations, create an issue of material fact.
 23 Michaels v. Sudeck, 107 Nev. 332, 334 (1991); Bond v. Stardust, Inc., 82 Nev. 47, 50 (1966). Fed.
 24 R. Civ. P. 56 requires that the non-moving party "by affidavits...set specific facts showing a genuine
 25 issue for trial. If the opposing party does not so respond, summary judgment should, if appropriate 26 be entered against that party." Fed. R.Civ. P. 56.

1           IV. ARGUMENT

2           A. Plaintiff's second cause of action, for alleged violation of TILA is also without merit and should be dismissed.

3           Plaintiff has failed to allege a TILA violation and this cause of action should be dismissed.
5           Only the initial lender is considered a creditor under TILA and specifically, loan servicers are not
6 liable under TILA. Ocasio v. OCWEN Loan Servicing, LLC, 2008 WL 2856392, 2 (E.D. PA 2008);
7 Lippner v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Trust Co., 544 F.Supp 2d 695, 698 (N.D. Ill. 2008). TILA requires 8 five disclosures in the context of a mortgage: (1) the annual percentage rate, (2) the finance charge,
9 (3) the amount financed, (4) the total payments, (5) and the payment schedule. Henderson v. GMAC
Mortg. Corp., 2008 WL 1733265, 5 (W.D. Wash. 2008), (citing 12 C.F.R. § 226). Plaintiff has not 10 alleged that any of the Defendants have failed to provide the required disclosures under TILA.
11

12           Instead, Plaintiff alleges that First Franklin, the loan servicer, was required to respond to his 13 written requests for information about the holder of the note under 15 U.S.C. §1641(f)(2). Plaintiff
14 misconstrues and misapplies the purpose of 15 U.S.C. §1641(f)(2) by seeking to impose independent
15 liability on a servicer. Section 1641(f)(2) does not itself contain a provision that imposes liability
16 under TILA, nor for a private right of action. 15 U.S.C. §1641(a) states: "any civil action for a 17 violation of this subchapter or proceeding under section 1607 of this title which may be brought 18 against a creditor may be maintained against any assignee of such creditor only if the violation for 19 which such action or proceeding is brought is apparent on the face of the disclosure statement."
20 (Emphasis added.)

21           The purpose of the statute is not to impose liability on a servicer for failure to disclose the 22 identity of the note holder, but to set forth parameters when an assignee might be liable for an 23 original lender's failure to disclose the required TILA elements as discussed in the Henderson court.
24 Plaintiff has not alleged that Defendants failed to provide the TILA disclosures. Therefore, we 25 cannot get to the issue of whether assignee liability can be found. There is no separate obligation
26 under TILA for a loan servicer to provide this information. Plaintiff is attempting to create a TILA 27 cause of action where none exists.

28           Furthermore, Plaintiff's alleged TILA claim is barred by the statute of limitations. Under 15

1 U.S.C. § 1640(e) “[a]ny action under this section” may be brought within one year of the occurrence
 2 of the alleged violation. Plaintiff has not alleged a TILA violation and even if Plaintiff had alleged a 3 TILA violation, his claim would be time barred. Plaintiff signed the Promissory Note and Deed of 4 Trust on or about November 25, 2006. Any TILA violation would have necessarily occurred at the 5 time of initial transaction. Plaintiff’s first Complaint was filed almost three years later, in November
 6 of 2008, well past the running of the statute of limitations. Thus, even if Plaintiff had alleged a 7 TILA violation, his claim would be time barred.

8 Finally, even if Plaintiff had alleged a TILA violation, and even if First Franklin did not 9 comply with 15 U.S.C. § 1641(f)(2), Plaintiff cannot show any damages and should not be entitled to 10 relief. Plaintiff has acknowledged from the beginning of this dispute that he defaulted on his 11 obligations. Since that acknowledgment, he has diligently sought to avoid his obligations under the 12 Note and Deed of Trust.

13 Plaintiff’s second cause of action against First Franklin, MERS, and LaSalle should be 14 dismissed.

15 B. Plaintiff’s fourth cause of action, against MERS, for alleged violation of NRS
104.3416 is without merit and should be dismissed.

16 This dispute is about a non-judicial foreclosure. Plaintiff requests a “determination as to the 17 legal status of the foreclosure.” (First Amended Complaint 9:11.) Plaintiff attempts to complicate 18 the issue by pointing to Chapter 104 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (“N.R.S.”) § 3416 which 19 governs transfer warranties in the Uniform Commercial Code. N.R.S. 104.3416(e) requires that 20 “[t]he warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the 21 maker...” Plaintiff alleges that MERS’ authorization of the foreclosure created an “insolvency 22 proceeding,” and therefore breached a transfer warranty, and that alleged breach somehow
 23 invalidated the transfer of the Deed of Trust to LaSalle (First Amended Complaint 6:10). Plaintiff’s 24 allegations are misguided.
 25

26 Non-judicial foreclosure sales are governed by N.R.S. § 107.080 which allows,

27 The beneficiary, the successor-in-interest of the beneficiary or the trustee first executes and causes to be recorded in the Office of the 28 Recorder of the county wherein the trust property, or some part thereof, is situated and Notice of the Breach and of his election to sell

1                   or cause to be sold the property to satisfy the obligation.
 2                   N.R.S. § 107.080(2)(b) (emphasis added).

2                   and

3                   The trustee, or other person authorized to make the sale under the 4                   terms of the trust deed or transfer-in-trust, shall, after expiration of the 5                   three-month period following the recording of the Notice of Breach
 6                   and Election to Sell, and before making of the sale, give notice of time
 7                   and place thereof by recording the Notice of Sale....
 8                   N.R.S. § 107.080(4). (emphasis added).

9                   Plaintiff makes no allegations that Defendants have violated N.R.S. 107.080. And nowhere
 10                  in N.R.S. 107.080 is there language referring to “insolvency proceedings” invalidating transfers.
 11                  Plaintiff’s allegation that Defendants have violated N.R.S. 104.3416 is without merit and this cause 12                  of action should be dismissed.

13                  C. Plaintiff’s fifth cause of action, for alleged violation of NRS 104.1304 (Obligation of 14                  Good Faith) has already been dismissed once, is still without merit, and should be 15                  dismissed again.

16                  The Court previously dismissed Plaintiff’s cause of action for breach of the covenant of good
 17                  faith and fair dealing. Plaintiff nonetheless re-alleges a breach of the covenant of good faith and fair 18                  dealing. Plaintiff’s claims should be dismissed.

19                  In relationships between a debtor/creditor or a bank and a borrower, there is no covenant of 20                  good faith and fair dealing. Cascade Investments, Inc. v. Bank of America, NA, SA, 2000 WL
 21                  1842945, 2 (D.Nev. 2000), see also, Nymark v. Heart Fed. Savings & Loan Assn., 283 Cal.Rptr. 53, 22                  56 (Cal.App. 3 Dist 1991). Specifically, in the Cascade case, the United States District Court, for 23                  the District of Nevada, held that “there is no special relationship between a debtor-creditor or a bank
 24                  and its loan customer that is sufficient to satisfy a tort claim for breach of the covenant of good faith
 25                  dealing.” Id.

26                  Furthermore, even if the Court determined a breach of covenant of good faith and fair dealing 27                  was applicable to the lender in this instance, Plaintiff still fails to set forth a cause of action for 28                  which a breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing can be made. Specifically, to set forth
 29                  a cause of action for breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiff must allege: (1)
 30                  Plaintiff and Defendants were party to a contract; (2) Defendants owed a duty of good faith to 31                  Plaintiff; (3) Plaintiff breached that duty by performing in a manner that was unfaithful to the

1 purpose of the contract; and (4) Plaintiff justified expectations were denied. Perry v. Jordan, 111
2 Nev. 943, 948 (1995).

3 Plaintiff cannot sufficiently allege that there was a valid contract that was breached.
4 Furthermore, Plaintiff cannot meet the last prong of the cause of action for breach of covenant of 5 good faith and fair dealing by alleging their justified expectations were denied. Specifically, 6 Plaintiff sufficiently alleged that he was justified in expecting anything other than that which he 7 signed and agreed to in his Note and/or Deed of Trust.

8 Plaintiff again fails to set forth a cause of action for breach of covenant of good faith and fair
9 dealing for which relief can be granted, and as such, this cause of action should be dismissed as to all 10 Defendants.

11 V. CONCLUSION

12 For the above stated reasons, it is respectfully submitted that this Court should dismiss all of 13 Plaintiff's causes of action against First Franklin, MERS, and LaSalle for failure to state a claim for 14 which relief can be granted pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) without leave to amend. In the 15 alternative, it is respectfully submitted that this Court should grant the Motion for Summary
16 Judgment pursuant to N.R.C.P. Rule 56. Finally, it is respectfully submitted that this Court expunge
17 any lis pendens on the Subject Property, and grant such other and further relief as this Court deems 18 just and proper.
